

Dear Stan,

20 Nov 77

We send you a belated but hearty congratulations on your selection and accession to your very important post in CIA. It's well deserved and we are all delighted.

We have just heard you on "Face the Nation" and are pleased to report that you lived up fully to our best expectations.

Please know there is a large reservoir of friends and admirers pulling for you and our great country!
Warmly,

STAT